Parents and guardians are reminded to attend the AGM to be held today (5th of November 2026) at 17:00. It is imperative that parents/guardians attend this important meeting. Please note that parents are allowed to come to the school and view the 2027 budget and the 2025 Audited Annual Financial Statement. The time for viewing is 10h00-14h00. We look forward to meeting with you. Kindly note that your child/ward will be allowed to wear civvies tomorrow (6th November 2026) if the parent/guardian attends the AGM today. 2. END-OF-YEAR ASSESSMENTS/TESTS AND EARLY DISMISSAL OF LEARNERS

Kindly note that the end-of-year assessments/tests will begin from the 17th November 2026, and will end on the 26th November 2026. Parents/guardians are humbly requested to assist their children/wards in thoroughly preparing for these assessments by monitoring their study methods, including the timetable. The approved timetable is attached to this newsletter. During this period, learners will be dismissed at 13h00. Kindly arrange transport accordingly.

3. EXAM PREPARATION VIDEO: A GUIDE FOR LEARNERS AND PARENTS

As we approach the examination period, we would like to share the video below, which provides valuable guidance on exam preparation, study techniques, and learner support. We encourage you to view it together with your child/ward and discuss ways to implement the strategies suggested. The link to the video is: https://midrandprimary.co.za/wp-content/uploads/2026/10/video1480626398.mp4

4. HUMBLE PLEA

There are some parents/guardians who request the school to arrange Uber (or any other related transport mode) for their children/wards. This is a risky practice more so that there are child-trafficking realities. We therefore humbly request that the school should not be involved in such arrangements as they pose life threatening risks. Should anything go wrong with such transport arrangement/s, the principal will unfortunately be held accountable. Let us therefore desist from having the school as the conduit of such arrangements.
